.. PETITIONER

AND

The Principal Secretary and another. .. RESPONDENTS

ORDER:

The petitioner was employed as an Executive Engineer in the Irrigation Department of Government of Andhra Pradesh. Through the order in G.O.Ms.No.24, dated 11.02.2004, the 1st respondent imposed the punishment of reducing the pension payable to the petitioner by 50%. The petitioner sought for review of the said order and the same was rejected through proceedings, dated 26.11.2004. Hence, this Writ Petition.

Heard the learned counsel for the petitioner and the learned Government Pleader for Irrigation.

It is not in dispute that the relief claimed in this Writ Petition relates to the service conditions of the petitioner, who is a Civil Servant of the State. In view of the provisions of the Administrative Tribunals Act, 1985, the petitioner has to approach the Administrative Tribunal and work out his remedies. In case the petitioner does not get adequate redressal before the Administrative Tribunal, it shall certainly be open to him to approach this Court by filing a fresh writ petition.

Hence, the Writ Petition is disposed of, leaving it open to the petitioner to work out his remedies before the Andhra Pradesh Administrative Tribunal. There shall be no order as to costs.
